BROCKTON, MA- Plymouth County District Attorney Timothy J. Cruz today announced that one of the victims found in a wooded area off Mulberry Street in Brockton on May 5, 2014 has been identified as Gail Fascione (DOB:12/25/59).

On May 5, 2014, police received a call concerning the discovery of two bodies in the woods. The Brockton Police and the Brockton Fire Department responded to the scene. The State Police Detectives assigned to the Plymouth County District Attorney's Office were notified and also responded to the scene.

Both bodies, which were found in the burnt remains of a tent, appeared to have suffered significant burns. The identity of the second victim is still pending. Foul play is not suspected.

The matter remains under investigation by the State Police Detective assigned to the Plymouth County District Attorney's Office, the Brockton Police Department and the State Fire Marshall's Office.

No further information is being released at this time.
